Led by world-renowned poet and author Jane Yolen, the cast of Away With the Faeries weaves poetry and music together in a performance shot with bright threads from Celtic and European folklore. Listeners are entranced with tales of uncanny creatures of fire, water, air and earth!

Audience member Gary Bernhardt wrote to the Daily Hampshire Gazette after the show's debut in Amherst MA:

"Poetry, tunes, and songs were woven together in a theme that included Celtic folklore, Grimm fairy tales, and Halloween. The harmonies were gorgeous, the musicianship was extraordinary, and Jane Yolen's poetry was thought-provoking and often very funny. Throughout the evening the artists seemed to have as much fun as the audience did. This was one of the most creative, engaging performances I have seen in a long time!"

In addition to Jane, cast members are 3 ravens trio Max Cohen, Lui Collins and Donna Hébert, with singer and bassist Molly Hebert-Wilson. They are creating a CD recording of the edited show for a spring 2017 release.
